

All buffets are prepared on-site by our own top class catering team using only the finest ingredients.

We offer Fair-trade tea, coffee and hot chocolate and a selection of Fair-trade biscuits to conference guests in line with our company ethos regarding sustainability.

There is a separate Halal kitchen on-site, and a selection of Halal food is available on request.

If you would like a buffet delivered to your place of work please contact us for more details

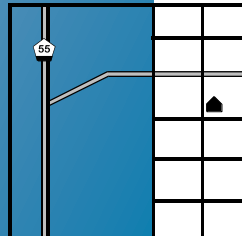

All profits made through our conference centre and catering service go towards empowering people from communities in need to improve their lives and the lives of the community.
